

THE FAITH CLUB

You are invited to a book reading from "The Faith Club," the true story of three women who were strangers but became friends. They met in New York City after 9/11, spending time together talking about their religion and culture. Each had her own preconceived idea about her own faith and others. As they shared their ideas, each understood her own faith more deeply. Together they wrote a book about their interfaith experience.

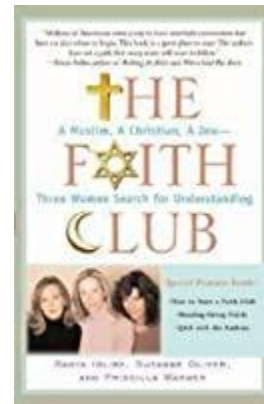

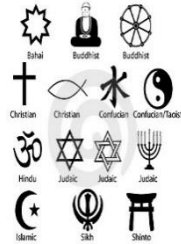

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8, 2022, 4-6PM

Three local women will read conversations and reflections from The Faith Club, followed by a discussion. Given the harsh rhetoric we hear too often, this program brings an opportunity to meet people of good will who are of another faith.
